'I can do all things through
Christ who gives me strength'

Wednesday 6th November 2024

Dear Parent/Guardian,

It is National Anti- Bullying Week between 11th-15th November 2024 and as ever, St Martin's will be joining in with a week of focus on this important theme.

To start the week, we are taking part in 'Odd Socks Day' on Tuesday 12th November, where the children can come to school in a pair of odd socks, to raise awareness that we are all unique.

The theme for Anti -Bullying week this year is 'Choose Respect' with a focus on what it means to disagree respectfully, how to avoid resorting to bullying, and how we can all choose to lead by example. We will also be reminding children about how to report their concerns about bullying.

'Odd Socks Day' is a fun way to demonstrate that we are all different, as well as a fun activity that the whole school can take part in.

If you would like any further information about Anti- Bullying Week and Odd Socks Day, please follow this link: Anti-Bullying Week 2024: Choose Respect

We really hope that all of the children and staff join in on Tuesday 12th November by wearing a pair of odd socks.

There will be no charge for this event.

Yours faithfully

R Rought
